

Arrowhead Campground

Shaded by loblolly pines and oaks, Arrowhead Campground's 50 campsites sit a half mile from Badin Lake—a hotspot for water sports and fishing. Suited for tent and RV camping, 33 of the 50 sites have electrical outlets. Off-highway vehicle trails are 2.5 miles from Arrowhead, and a boat ramp and picnic area are just a half-mile away.

Launch your boat at Cove Boat Ramp

A visitor gets ready to launch his boat at Cove Boat Ramp on Badin Lake. Just a half-mile drive or walk from Arrowhead Campground, Cove Boat Ramp is located west of Arrowhead Campground on Forest Road 597B. Follow the signs to the boat landing.

Trail traces lake shore

Badin Lake Hiking Trail follows Badin Lake's shore for half of its distance and loops back through hardwood forests to the boat ramp.

Paved connectors from Arrowhead Campground access the trail. Hikers may take the 2.5-mile loop or tackle the entire 5.6-mile trail.

Calling all anglers

Anglers may fish the shoreline of Badin Lake from numerous points along the Badin Lake Hiking Trail. In addition, a floating pier is located on the north side of Kings Mountain Point—a great casting spot.

Badin Lake is filled with an array of fish, from catfish to largemouth to striped bass.

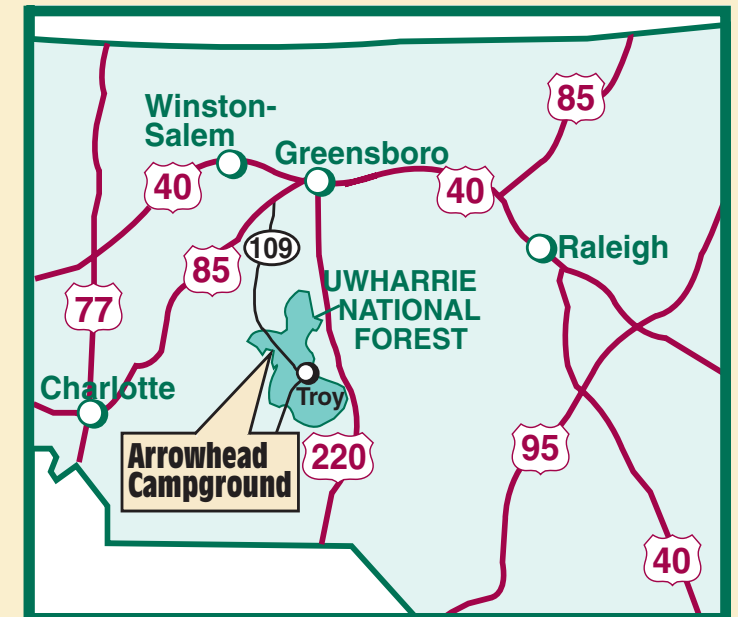

Anchor your boats

A 5,350-acre impoundment of the Yadkin River, Badin Lake offers a boaters' paradise, from waterskiing to cruising to sailing. Known as a bassmaster's paradise, the lake is a favorite haven for largemouth bass. Camping from boats is a popular pastime on Badin Lake. Visitors not only camp, they swim, fish and sunbathe.

Riding the OHV trails

An all-terrain vehicle rider enjoys the off-highway vehicle trails near Arrowhead. The trails can be accessed at the Wolf Den Trail-head, 2.5 miles from campground. Take 597B east and turn right on 597. At "T" intersection with Forest Road 576, turn right and look for the sign.
